This was a dark morning in the winter when a beautiful brown eagle landed on the window of Seven's house and started exchanging looks with Seveny, Seven's little brother, who loves falcons, eagles and birds of prey in general.. He started saying to himself with a smile on his face:

- Glory be to God!.. How beautiful this eagle is!.. if you could catch it!

Seveny approached with bold and cautious steps to the window, but the surprise was that the eagle did not move!

He came closer and put his hands on it petting it, but suddenly he cried to himself:
-What is this?..a message?!

He began to unpack the envelope that was tied to the foot of the eagle, which quickly flew when he fulfilled the trust.. Seveny looked at him with his eyes, sad for his loss. Then he looked at the letter and rose up running:

- Seven.. Seven!..a message for you!

Seveny ran to seven, saying:

- Here you are!

Seven sat on the sofa, opening the letter, saying:

- He is my friend, the engineer, Niney.. It has been a long time since the last message he sent me before I lost track of his news.. Ah.. how much I miss him!

Seven began to read the letter as Seveny watched his facial expressions, but Seveny was shocked when he saw that his brother's expression was becoming sad and upset..

Soon Seven put down the letter and stood up with determination, saying:

- There is no power or strength except with Allah!.. It's a message of help!.. He's the evil variable X again.. I must hurry before it becomes too late!

Seveny turned back in surprise saying:

- Help?!..now?!..tomorrow is the feast..you can't go, Seven!

- On the contrary! .. It is the last day of Ramadan and I must conclude it with good deeds; With the help of my friend.. Allah helps his servant as long as the servant helps his brother!

- But .. When are you heading?
- To Numbering mountain.. rather to its summit..
- But didn't the guards arrest the bad guys there a while ago?!
- They arrested the bad guys in the area around him.. but none of the guards climbed Numbering mountain, as it is very high and its stones are so sharp.
- But how did the wicked get to his top then?
- They seem to have tunnels in the mountain.
- Or a secret way, for example.. Anyway, how would you know?
- There's no way for me to know.. and since I'm in a hurry and don't have time to investigate, I'll start climbing it right away and so I'll surprise them too!
- Have you ever climbed mountains, Seven?
- When I was young ,I did, that was my hobby!
- I am confused between your many hobbies!..swimming, climbing trees, climbing mountains, and..and..how did you find time for all those hobbies?

- The time is enough for those who have the goal.. Also, the period of childhood or youth is the appropriate period to acquire skills for the future, so take this opportunity, my brother!

Seven took his sword and took out the rope and the climbing equipment, greeted his mother and asked her for contentment and supplication..

Seven hero came out hurried toward the mountain to save his old friend, the engineer, from the clutches of the evil variable X..

When Seven reached the foot of the mountain, he tied himself with a rope then began to use the chisel and climb, he put his hand on the rock when he sensed that someone was looking at him, so he looked around but saw no one but him.

Suddenly he heard a voice saying:

- Peace be upon you, Seven!

Seven were surprised, he looked closely and saw his friend two of the colors, he was camouflaged as the colors of the mountain as usual!.. Seven replied and said:

- Nice to see you, my friend!

- Nicer to see you!.. I see you climbing the mountain.. Are you on a new adventure?

- Yes...my friend needs help and I'm rushing to him!

- Now?! .. You should be at home preparing for the feast!

- But the feast will be happier when my friend is happier!

- Amazing, Seven.. you are amazing!.. this is how friendship should be!

Two looked up, and then added:

- Is this friend of yours at the top of the mountain?

- Yes..

- And you intend to climb all this distance?!.. This is very dangerous.. Look for a short way.. They certainly do not always climb from here..
- It's true.. but I don't have time to search for secret ways, because I'm in a hurry!
- This is not my opinion... Finding the way is faster!
- you like that..
- Yes..and this is an entertaining game!..I will look for the way while you climb and we will see who will reach first..what do you think?
- Although this is not the time for me to play, you can do it if you like.
- Amazing.. I will go and you will see that I will win!

The master of colors immediately set off to go around the mountain and search for the secret path while Seven climbed his way..

Right hand from here and left from there.. Be careful while you raise your right foot and make sure that the stone is solid under your left foot..

So in this manner, the patience of seven was prolonged as he fought the impossible and challenged the mountains using the chisel and ropes!

At noon, seven heard the sound of intense bleating.. The continual bleating seemed afraid and anxious, so he approached cautiously and looked, a small goat was babbling on a secluded rock, it was afraid of a large mountain cat that it saw on another rock that wanted to pounce on it.. While the rest of the herd of goats, including the mother goat, was babbles anxiously but no dare to get close!

Seven yelled:

- Amazing; This is the first time I know that this type of goat can live on the slopes of rugged mountains and jump from one rock to another so easily!

He looked at the little goat trying to escape as the predatory cat jumped to it and suddenly...

Suddenly the cat felt that a rope had passed in front of it and prevented it from crossing, so it growled angrily while Seven quickly pulled the rope.

Seven quickly took out his sword and prepared to fight.. The big cat ran around him looking for his weak point, then jumped on him, showing its fangs and claws, but quickly Seven dealt blows to it that turned it into seven parts because

$$(7 \times 1 = 7)..$$

There was silence for a short while before the goats babbled happily and the mother goat jumped to its daughter and licked it happily, helping it get back into the herd!

While the big goat approached Seven, took a babble and licked him as if to thank him, then turned and took a babble..

Seven did not understand what it wanted at first, then put his hand on his head smiling and said:

- I see!.. you want me to ride.. thank you!

Seven rode on the back of the goat, which quickly began to leap skillfully between the rocks, while Seven were holding on to its neck tightly, surprised with its quick and lightning jumps!

Soon it reached a great height that the city of numbers became very small from there, and the temperature became very low due to the altitude, as the more we climbed, the colder the weather became!

Soon they heard the voice of numbers talking and chattering next to them, so the goat groaned while Seven came down, patting its back and wiping it tenderly and saying:

- Allah rewards you! This favor you have given me is priceless!

The big goat groaned, as if saying: "Welcome" Then it immediately sped off, jumping from one rock to another until it descended skillfully,

while Seven said to himself:

- Glory be to Allah!.. I would never have thought that those hooves might have such a rare skill, but Allah has power over all things!

Then Seven turned to his original task while rubbing his hands and forearms, as he was feeling very cold.

He approached and looked among the stones, and there were evil guards exchanging a conversation while they were confident, as they did not think that anyone might be able to climb and reach this difficult cliff!

Indeed, he began to circle the place, covered with stones, but suddenly he heard a screaming sound:

- You will not escape with your deeds! .. I refuse to work with you, you evildoers!

One of the guards said sarcastically:

- Maybe we will not escape... but if we will not, you will not escape with us!

He burst out laughing while another guard said:

- Come on!.. Aren't you claiming (pretendingly saying) that you love your son?.. So, work fast if you want to see him again!

The guards started laughing while seven were looking at them among the stones, he saw his friend, the engineer, Niney, working on a giant catapult machine, while the guards around him disturbed him and laughed.. He said in his secret:

- So; They want to bombard the city from here..
What a malicious plan, you variable x villain!

Suddenly a voice from behind answered him:

- But not if the engineer and the catapult disappeared!
